

```
import pygame
```

```
from constants import *
```

```
class Tile:
```

```
    def __init__(self, tile_type):
```

```
        self.tile_type = tile_type
```

```
        if tile_type == "GRASS":
```

```
            self.color = GREEN
```

```
        elif tile_type == "SAND":
```

```
            self.color = (194, 178, 128)
```

```
        elif tile_type == "ROCK":
```

```
            self.color = GRAY
```

```
        elif tile_type == "WATER":
```

```
            self.color = BLUE
```

```
        else:
```

```
            self.color = BLACK
```

```
def draw(self, screen, x, y):
```

```
    pygame.draw.rect(
        screen,
        self.color,
        (
            x,
            y, TILE_SIZE, TILE_SIZE
        )
    )
```

```
class Terrain:
```

```
    def __init__(self):
```

```
        self.tiles = []
```

```
        self.generate()
```

```
def generate(self):

    for row in range(MAP_HEIGHT):

        tile_row = []

        for col in range(MAP_WIDTH):

            if row < MAP_HEIGHT//3:

                tile = Tile("SAND")

            elif row < (MAP_HEIGHT//3)*2:

                tile = Tile("GRASS")

            else:

                tile = Tile("ROCK")

        tile_row.append(tile)
```

```
self.tiles.append(tile_row)
```

```
def draw(self, screen, camera_x, camera_y):
```

```
    for row, tile_row in enumerate(self.tiles):
```

```
        for col, tile in enumerate(tile_row):
```

```
            x = (
                col * TILE_SIZE
                - camera_x
            )
```

```
            y = (
                row * TILE_SIZE
                - camera_y
            )
```

```
            tile.draw(
```

```
screen,
x,
y
)
```